RAISE YOUR HAND

Would you compromise the quality of your work in order to meet a deadline?

INTEGRITY , TRUST AND TRANSPARENCY

Academic integrity – commitment to and demonstration of values of honesty, trust, fairness, respect and responsibility in learning, teaching and research.

The Importance of Defining Integrity

- Establish trust with students and the community
- Academic achievements
- Knowledge acquisition

INTEGRITY , TRUST AND TRANSPARENCY

Trust is an important foundation to education – and necessary of academic work. It is paramount, particularly important when it pertains to online assessments. Trust is essential to the academic environment to ensure their work such as research has value to external communities.

How is trust developed?

- Expectations
- Clear and consistent standards
- Accountability
- Transparency

INTEGRITY , TRUST AND TRANSPARENCY

Just as an institution prepares an academic program according to a clear set of principles and learning outcomes, institutions need to be committed to ensuring open, honest communication with students and the academic community regularly about academic integrity.

Transparency Expectations

- ◆ Equity-inflected teaching practice
- ◆ Support
- ◆ Clarity and opportunities
- ◆ Diminish academic dishonesty
- ◆ Open dialogue
